

THE ADVOCATE'S AWARD

NCBA LITIGATION SECTION

NORTH CAROLINA
BAR ASSOCIATION
SEEKING LIBERTY & JUSTICE

The Litigation Section is pleased to solicit nominations for The Advocate's Award, to be conferred in June in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Litigation Section.

Criteria: The Advocate's Award has been established to recognize members of the Litigation Section who are the "super-stars" of our profession. The recipient of the award should: 1) have the highest ethical standards; 2) have shown great skill and ability as a litigator/trial lawyer and commitment to the very best work product; 3) demonstrate a true commitment of service to clients; 4) demonstrate a respect for and love of the law; 5) be held in the highest regard by both bench and bar; 6) be dedicated to the community and the bar with a track record of pro bono or volunteer service; and 7) serve as an example of how to effectively balance both outstanding professional performance and other life endeavors.

NOMINATIONS GUIDELINES

Please complete the form below. On separate sheet(s), please address the following about the nominee:

- A. General description of nominee's practice
- B. Special contributions to the general practice of law, including special service to clients or to other attorneys

Letters of Support: Letters relating to the nominee's law practice, community service and bar activities from attorneys and lay persons who know the nominee well (extensive information in this area is encouraged). No more than five letters, please.

Please note: You may be contacted by a member of the Advocate's Award Committee about your nominee. The nomination and supporting information, and all communications, will be kept confidential. Also, 1) the Award may be conferred and nominations may be made posthumously; 2) nominees who do not receive the Award may be considered for the Award in subsequent years without being re-nominated; and 3) nominees who are currently practicing must be a member of the Litigation Section to be considered for the Award.
